PARTICIPANTS

Martin ARMSTRONG, USA Martin got into finance after he started working at a small gold shop, and his keen interest in coin collecting and the historical context of the coinage led to the discovery and development of financial forecasting tools to predict market movements. He was one of the first International Hedge Fund Managers since 1985 and the first International Economist and International Institutional & Geopolitical Advisor, being the world's largest institutional advisor. Martin has advised governments, heads of state, multinational corporations, and the takeover players during the 1980's. Martin is a prolific forecaster, commentator and educator on the economy and the cycles that underlie everything from business to the rise and fall of civilizations. You can follow his work at www.armstrongeconomics.com.

Catherine Austin FITTS, USA President of Solari, Inc., publisher of the Solari Report, and managing member of Solari Investment Screens, LLC. Catherine served as managing director and member of the board of directors of the Wall Street investment bank Dillon, Read & Co. Inc., as Assistant Secretary of Housing and Federal Housing Commissioner at the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development in the first Bush Administration, and was the president of Hamilton Securities Group, Inc. Catherine has designed and closed over $25 billion of transactions and investments to-date and has led portfolio and investment strategy for $300 billion of financial assets and liabilities. She graduated from the University of Pennsylvania (BA), the Wharton School (MBA) and studied Mandarin Chinese at the Chinese University of Hong Kong.

Dr David Bell, MBBS, PhD, USA Senior Scholar at Brownstone Institute, David Bell is a public health physician and biotech consultant in global health. He is a former medical officer and scientist at the World Health Organization (WHO), Programme Head for malaria and febrile diseases at the Foundation for Innovative New Diagnostics (FIND) in Geneva, Switzerland, and Director of Global Health Technologies at Intellectual Ventures Global Good Fund in Bellevue, WA, USA.

Carolyn A. BETTS Esq., USA General Counsel of Solari, Inc., contributor to Solari Report and co-host for Financial Rebellion with Catherine Austin Fitts on CHD-TV. She served as the lead financial advisor for the USA Federal Housing Administration. She served as an associate and then partner in the corporate finance departments of Omaha and Washington, DC law firms, representing affordable housing development, federal government, capital market, financial services and other major clients in connection with large mergers and acquisitions, mortgage securitizations and other finance transactions, many involving commercial real estate and affordable housing, and with securities and regulatory compliance matters. During the savings and loan crisis, her practice group represented Resolution Trust Corporation in designing and executing transactions involving assets of savings loans in government receivership.

Andrew BRIDGEN, Member of Parliament, UK Andrew Bridgen has been the hardworking and local MP for North West Leicestershire, UK since 2010 following a successful career in business. Andrew has helped thousands of constituents and run many high profiles campaigns over the last decade, ensuring his constituents have a strong voice in Westminster. Andrew has been a critical voice of the COVID-19 management in the UK, and he has also been vocal about his concerns regarding the World Health Organization's future regulations.

Robyn COSFORD, Australia Prof. Robyn Cosford is Chair of the Board for Children's Health Defense Australia, having been a functional medicine practitioner for over 35 years. As a mother of five, she is passionate about the health of children and the mother- small child relationship in particular. Robyn was grandfathered into Australasian College on Nutritional and Environmental Medicine (ACNEM) by Professor Ian Brighthope in 1996 and was a researcher with University of Newcastle into metabolic and stool microbiota patterns in Chronic Fatigue Syndrome, Autism and ADHD. It was at this time that she began researching and treating abnormalities in gut microbiome in various disease patterns and patterns of hidden infections. A senior lecturer for ACNEM over many years, Robyn has presented at numerous conferences to medical and non-medical audiences alike across Australia and abroad, including the Defeat Autism Now Conference in the USA. In 2021 she retired her medical license as a result of the Covid situation and has since been speaking in interviews, at rallies, public forums and conferences, whilst continuing to provide integral care by empowering people to take back control of their own health as a Lifestyle and Wellness Consultant. Robyn has long been working in the field of vaccine injured children, with special interest in children's neurodevelopmental disorders, and Autism in particular. Naturally, as a result, she has been following Children's Health Defense for many years and is excited and honoured to be Chair and a Director on the board of the new Australian Chapter.

Sonia ELIJAH, UK. With a background in Economics. Sonia Elijah is a former BBC researcher and now works as an investigative journalist for the Children's Health Defence Organization. Elijah has uncovered significant conflicts of interest through her studies of Pfizer's original clinical vaccine documentation.

Jonathan GILTHORPE PhD, Sweden An academic research scientist with over 30 years of experience in disciplines ranging from virology to neuroscience. Jonathan's lifelong pursuit of true knowledge has led, in his professional career, to a growing understanding for the molecular and cellular mechanisms underlying health and disease. His research focuses neurodegenerative diseases and cancer. He has been an active member of The Doctor's Appeal since 2021, when he became vocal about the tremendous damage due to wide and uncritical acceptance of rapidly deployed mRNA therapeutics.

Orsolya GYÖRFFY, Switzerland CHD Europe board member and Executive Director. After a short stay at Camphill, Orsolya studied economics in England. She first worked as an organizational development consultant in many multinational companies and finally as the head of information technology for the EMEA regions on the board of an American multinational company. She supported and facilitated several art and social science initiatives and events. Her life took a new turn after she became aware of the extent of corruption in 2007, in the run-up to the financial crisis, and worked on the translation of D.N. Dunlop's biography. Since 2010, she has served as managing director of Perseus Publishing. The publishing house publishes anthroposophical books, works by Prof. Anthony C. Sutton, Carroll Quigley, T.H. Meyer, Terry Boardman, and others exposing historical lies. She co-edits and contributes to the international monthly journal 'The Present Age', which promotes humanities by analysing symptomatic events in politics, culture, and economics. In addition to working at CHD, she collaborates with several organizations standing up for medical freedom and protection of children.

DDr. Renate HOLZEISEN, Italy A European Human Rights lawyer based in South Tyrol who is fighting the Corona measures legally, Board member of CHD Europe. She contends that any newly developed vaccine cannot be made mandatory using the rationale that was used for their approval. She is also a Barrister practicing before the Supreme Courts and is specialized in European and International Law. She is a formidable force in cases at the European and national level by unifying, sharing, and coordinating initiatives. She is actively engaged in issues regarding Fundamental Rights and Freedoms.

Mary Holland, USA Mary Holland is President and General Counsel of Children's Health Defense. She has been writing and advocating for better vaccine law and policy for many years, including while she served on the faculty at NYU School of Law from 2002-19. His experimental research focus is on bacterial toxins and antibiotics. Michael has authored a textbook on Biochemical Pharmacology and recently edited and published mRNA Vaccine Toxicity with Doctors for Covid Ethics.

James PATRICK, USA Author, economist, and investigator from the eastern United States. James was deeply troubled by the brutality of the lockdowns in March 2020 and the intensity of the misinformation surrounding everything COVID. In response he set out to produce a documentary and series of interviews to give a voice to the unheard heroes, the dignitaries and scientists speaking out. He continues his documentary work on the topics of farming, fertility and Central Bank Digital Currencies.

Marco RICCA, Switzerland Marco is a graduate in telecommunications engineering from the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology (EPFL). He founded Europe's first "ethical hacking" firm, Ilion Security, which he sold in 2011. He subsequently founded Satorys, another cyber-security startup, which he sold in 2013. As an independent consultant in cyber-security, he has also spoken and written about the way the Internet and strong cryptography can help shape a freer world. Since 2020, Marco has been working with many organizations of the resistance, helping them circumvent online censorship, integrate open source alternatives to big tech solutions, and spread the cause of liberty.

Mike ROBINSON, UK Mike Robinson is co-editor of the UK Column. He has been writing on political issues since the mid-1990s and joined the UK Column in 2008. His background is in technology infrastructure and has worked in a wide range of sectors: telecoms, heavy engineering, legal and finance.

Sven ROMÁN MD, Sweden Consultant in Child and Adolescent Psychiatry. Sven has broad experience in both inpatient and outpatient clinics. Over the past decade, Sven has often entered the arena of public debate on psychiatry, and on child and adolescent psychiatry in particular. Since February 2020 he has debated the COVID-19 strategy and on 12th March 2021, together with two medical colleagues, launched the non-profit association Läkarpappet, which was founded as a Swedish response to The Great Barrington Declaration. Following the international interest generated by the January 2023 Stockholm conference 'Pandemic Strategies: Lessons and Consequences', the organisation rebranded as The Doctors' Appeal in 2023.

Prof. Richard WERNER, D.Phil., UK Professor in Banking and Finance. Richard holds a First Class Honours in Economics from the London School of Economics and a Doctorate in Economics from the University of Oxford. He is a founding chair of Local First, a community interest company establishing non-profit community banks in the UK, and in 2008, he founded and has been Director of the Centre for Banking, Finance and Sustainable Development. His book Princes of the Yen was a No. 1 bestseller in Japan and is one of the best sources for people who want to understand central banking.

Dr. Wolfgang WODARG, Germany German medical doctor in public health, internal and respiratory medicine and hygiene. Previously served as a member of parliament in the German Bundestag (1994-2009) and as an anticorruption specialist.

Lisa Renberg - Community Network Leader Lisa was born in Skellefteå in northern Sweden. She is a former elite football player on the national team, and a Certified Nutritional Therapist. As a teenager, she got interested in health issues and in non-pharmaceutical ways to stay healthy. She has been working with food and health in a number of ways; networking and supporting therapists and physicians. Since 2020, Lisa has been organizing international Conferences with Medical Doctors, Lawyers, Economist, and activists. She learned from football that for your team to win, all the players need to perform, and it is everyone's responsibility to make sure that you are fit to perform at your best, regardless of the nature of the task.
